What gifts/skills will you bring to the board of trustees?

My work life has provided me with skills that are relevant:

- I am a communications professional and a writer - I can assist with communications to the membership, for outreach, and to decision-makers as well as other neighborhoods.
- In particular, I have social media experience and would be glad to assist with and expand our social media outreach to members and others.
- I am a lawyer, with expertise in housing law.
- I've had responsibility for organizing events, workshops, conference summits, webinars and so on. I'd like to use this experience to consider our meeting structure and work with other residents to determine whether there are different approaches that they would enjoy.

What are some things that you would like to work on and to see happen during your term as a trustee?

- Expand membership, ensure a representative membership. I would like to help develop outreach efforts and other strategies to expand membership and ensure that membership represents the diversity of our community.
- Encourage more engagement of current membership, perhaps with new communications efforts and resident input into the ways we come together.
- Work with a committee of residents, especially creative and design professionals, on consideration of new ways to structure our membership meetings.
- Assist with development of a plan for preservation of housing that is needed in our neighborhood.
- Partner with the Over-the-Rhine Foundation on historic preservation to ensure our great assets are not lost.
