PROJECT NAME
Public Art – Community Dialogue
WHAT WE INTEND TO DO
Construct a public art display that engages residents to share their thoughts and serves as a catalyst for dialogue and community. Watch Candy Cheng's TED Talk for better understanding: https://www.ted.com/talks/candy_chang_before_i_die_i_want_to
HOW WE INTEND TO DO IT
Following the success of Candy Cheng's public installation, Before I Die... , and working with students at the Art Academy of Cincinnati, we will construct a mural that requests the public to write their wishes for their lives, the goals they want to accomplish before their deaths. Installing this wall requires us only to buy the materials and request permission from the artist.
HOW WE WILL MEASURE SUCCESS
We can count the number of responses left on the wall, and the number of conversations and community circles it inspires.
PROJECT DETAILED BUDGET
$485 supplies to construct the wall $215 labor to construct and install the wall for a two month time $400 maintain the quality of the wall and responses- $8/visit x 50 visits in 60 days $1100
VOLUNTEER HOURS

20 hours to help support construction and installation 30 hours to support maintenance and dialogue 50
